FINANCIAL INFORMATION

It is important for you to fully complete this portion of the Questionnaire and to provide accurate information so that we can fully evaluate your case. We will review the information that you provide us, we will evaluate your issues and we will quote you a retainer fee for the engagement of our services. Obviously it is important for your information to be accurate as possible and this is why we are having you prepare this document in advance of your consultation. Keep in mind that if you retain our firm to represent you then you will be billed for the time spent on your case. If we have to search for information that you already have readily available it will make your case more expensive.
